

Become a Eurodesk UK Ambassador

The role

- The main aim of ambassadors is to help spread the word about Eurodesk UK and European mobility opportunities to young people and organisations, in your day-to-day work via events, informal talks and social media.
- There is no cost involved and applications are welcome all year.
- Ambassadors can be from across the youth sector throughout the UK with experience ranging from professional or voluntary youth work to mobility projects including Erasmus+.
- Full support is provided by the Eurodesk UK team, including an introductory online training session. We also provide information materials and promotional items.

The benefits

- Becoming an ambassador connects you to the wider Eurodesk network.
- Promotion of your organisation's own activities on the Eurodesk UK website and other channels.
- Invitation to national Eurodesk seminars (travel reimbursed) and online training.
- Access to publicise opportunities on the Europe-wide Last Minute Offers database.
